[REDACTED] related that she had some swelling near her right eye but she could not recall how the injury occurred. [REDACTED] stated after the officer took her up the steps, the officer removed her handcuffs and released her. [REDACTED] related that after the incident, she asked the involved officer, "Do you think your people will let you take your gun and badge off so we can get down?" [REDACTED] related there were only two female officers at her house that day, the one that had physical contact with her and the other was Officer Peterson who was not involved in the incident. [REDACTED] related that she did not seek medical attention because she could not leave her mother alone due to her physical condition.
